Stella Kosim's concert experience includes solo, duo and ensemble performances. Stella's recent concert at DODO Music & Art Center in Jakarta, Indonesia was well received by the classical guitar community. She has also performed for the Tri-Cities and Seattle Classic Guitar Societies in solo and ensemble settings. Stella's CDs include Be Thou My Vision, featuring traditional hymns arranged for solo classical guitar, and Bubuy Bulan, the first recording of a collection of Indonesian folk songs arranged for solo classical guitar by Indonesian guitarist Iwan Tanzil.

A graduate of the University of Washington, where she studied classical guitar performance with Michael Partington, Stella received several prestigious scholarships in support of her studies. She has performed in master classes presented by the Seattle Classic Guitar Society, Northwest Guitar Festival, New York Guitar Seminar at Mannes and the Guitar Foundation of America. She has also studied with Jorge Caballero in New York City, Paul Grove, Scott Kritzner and David Leisner. She began her classical guitar studies at Yayasan Pendidikan Musik, a private music school in Jakarta, Indonesia, under the guidance of Oliver Pletscher. After receiving a teaching diploma from Yayasan Pendidikan Musik, she began teaching at the Basic Education Guitar Program of the school in 2011. Stella has also taken Suzuki Guitar teacher training.

The Stella Kosim concert will be available to view online on the SCGS YouTube Channel from September 16 through September 30.

The Seattle Classic Guitar Society is a nonprofit organization promoting the art of the classical guitar in the Puget Sound area.

Established in 1958, the Seattle Classic Guitar Society is an unendowed, nonprofit arts organization for classical music, which presents a variety of musical events featuring world-class artists, local members' recitals, and master classes. The Seattle Classic Guitar Society produces a bi-monthly newsletter, Guitar Soundings, containing guitar and music-related articles and dates of upcoming events both in Seattle and across the nation.
