ANNOUNCING THE SEATTLE CLASSIC GUITAR SOCIETY 2012-2013 INTERNATIONAL CONCERT SERIES

All performances take place at the Illsley Ball Nordstrom Recital Hall at Benaroya Hall

XUEFEI YANG - SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 29TH, 2012, 7:30 PM

The Seattle Classic Guitar Society is thrilled to welcome back Xuefei Yang for the opening concert of the International Series. Born in Beijing, now based in the UK, Xuefei Yang (Fei) is acclaimed as one of the world's finest classical guitarists. Born following the Cultural Revolution, an era where Western music & instruments were banned, the fascinating story of Fei's rise to the world stage, is that of a musical pioneer. Her first public appearance at the age of ten, at the China International Guitar Festival, received such acclaim that the Spanish Ambassador in China immediately presented her with a concert guitar. The composer Rodrigo attended her debut concert in Madrid when she was fourteen and in 1995, when John Williams came to Beijing, he was so impressed with her playing that he gave two of his own Smallman guitars to her Conservatory especially for Fei and other top students to play. As a professional musician, Fei has performed concerts in 40 countries throughout the UK, Europe, Asia and North America. The demand for her music sees Fei keeping a busy international schedule including London's major venues (with several sell-out recitals at London's Wigmore Hall), and concerts at the world's most prestigious venues including Concertgebouw Amsterdam, Konzerthaus Vienna, Carnegie Hall & Lincoln Center New York, plus the main venues across Asia. Fei has an exclusive international recording contract with EMI Classics. Her EMI debut album "Romance de Amor" achieved gold disc status in Hong Kong, & her second "40 Degrees North", featuring music from Spain and China was chosen as "Best Instrumental CD of 2008" by Canton Radio station in China, and Editor's Choice in Gramophone Magazine. Her third CD recorded with the Barcelona Symphony Orchestra and featuring Rodrigo's Concierto de Aranjuez topped the classical music charts in New Zealand.

Fei's fourth CD of "Bach Concertos" for EMI is on international release from February 2012. It is Xuefei's most innovative recording yet. It features her own transcriptions of the music of J.S.Bach - both solo pieces and concertos (recorded with the Elias String Quartet). Xuefei hopes that these will represent a significant contribution to the baroque concerto repertoire for guitar.

MICHAEL PARTINGTON - SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 10TH, 2012, 7:30 PM

Michael Partington is one of the most engaging of the new generation of concert players. Praised by Classical Guitar Magazine for his “lyricism, intensity and clear technical command,” this award-winning British guitarist has performed internationally as a soloist and with ensemble to unanimous critical praise. Audiences are put at ease by his charming stage manner and captivated by his musical interpretations. His innate rhythmic understanding and sense for tonal colour combine to form some of the most memorable phrasing to be heard on the guitar. Mr. Partington has appeared throughout the USA, UK, Canada, Russia and Scandinavia in solo recital, with orchestra and in chamber ensembles. He has performed live on BBC Radio and Great Western Radio in the UK, as well as St. Paul Sunday on National Public Radio in the US, KUOW, KING FM, KZAZ, and KAOS in Washington. An advocate of new music, he has commissioned and premiered works by Stephen Goss, Bryan Johanson, Toshio Hosokawa, Angelo Gilardino, Tom Baker, Kevin Callahan and others. He is a frequent performer and teacher at festivals, including the Guitar Foundation of America Festival, Portland Guitar Festival, Northwest Guitar Festival, Shenandoah Valley Bach Festival and Chelan Bach Fest. His recordings are available on the Rosewood Recordings, Present Sounds and Cadenza Music labels. He currently lives in Seattle where he is director of the Guitar Program at the University of Washington.

DAVID RUSSELL - SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 23RD, 2013, 7:30 PM

The Seattle Classic Guitar Society is thrilled and honored to present Grammy Award winner David Russell. Mr. Russell is world renowned for his superb musicianship and inspired artistry, having earned the highest praise from audiences and critics alike. In recognition of his great talent and his international career, he was named a Fellow of The Royal Academy of Music in London in 1997. In November 2003 he was given the Medal of Honor of the Conservatory of the Balearics. David Russell spends his time touring the world, appearing regularly at prestigious halls in major cities, such as New York, London, Tokyo, Los Angeles, Madrid, Toronto and Rome. Concert-goers everywhere are in awe of his musical genius and inspired by his captivating stage presence. His love of his craft resonates through his flawless and seemingly effortless performance. The attention to detail and provocative lyrical phrasing suggest an innate understanding of what each individual composer was working to achieve, bringing to each piece a sense of adventure. Since 1995 David Russell has an exclusive recording contract with Telarc International, with which he has recorded sixteen CDs, among them Aire Latino, which received a Grammy in 2005 for Best Classical Solo Instrumentalist Album.

BEN VERDERY - SATURDAY, APRIL 27TH, 2013, 7:30 PM

Guitarist and composer, Benjamin Verdery, has been described as “iconoclastic” and “inventive” by The New York Times and “one of the classical guitar world’s most foremost personalities,” by Classical Guitar Magazine. Since 1980 Benjamin Verdery has performed worldwide in theatres and at festivals, including the International Guitar Festival (Havana, Cuba); Wigmore Hall (England); the 92nd Street Y, the Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center and the Metropolitan Opera (NYC). His tours regularly take him to Canada, Europe, Asia and throughout the United States. He has recorded and performed with such diverse artists as Andy Summers, Frederic Hand, William Coulter, Leo Kottke, Anthony Newman, Jessye Norman, Paco Peña, Hermann Prey and John Williams. Many composers have composed music for him, of particular note was the commissioning by the Yale University Music Library of a work by Ingram Marshall for classical and electric guitars. Benjamin and Andy Summers premiered Dark Florescence at Carnegie Hall with the American Composers Orchestra and at the Belfast Festival (Ireland) with the Ulster Orchestra. Benjamin has released over 15 albums, his recording, Start Now (Mushkatweek), won the 2005 Classical Recording Foundation Award. A prolific composer, many of Benjamin Verdery’s compositions have been performed, recorded and published over the years. Most recently, the Assad Duo premiered Ben’s newest work, What He Said. Since 1985, Benjamin has been chair of the guitar department at the Yale University School of Music and Artistic Director of the bi-annual Yale Guitar Extravaganza. Verdery has also been Artistic Director of Art of the Guitar at the 92nd St Y (New York City) since 2006. He is an honorary board member of the Suzuki Association of the Americas, the Swiss Global Foundation and the D’Addario Foundation for the Performing Arts.

SUMMER CLASSICAL GUITAR SEMINAR AT CORNISH

Michael Nicoella will be teaching an inspiring weeklong classical guitar seminar at Cornish this summer. The program is open to guitarists age 14 and older, playing at an intermediate to advanced level on classical guitar and comfortable reading music. The program runs from August 6-10; 10am-4pm M-F with an hour lunch break. The week long event will culminate in a student performance on Friday evening in PONCHO Concert Hall on the Cornish campus. Each day will consist of ensemble rehearsal and coaching; a lecture/workshop focusing on such topics as technique, fret board knowledge, fingering, interpretation, sight reading and repertoire; and an informal masterclass.

Cost is $395 with scholarships and housing available. Cornish College of the Arts offers a Summer Music program that affords students the opportunity to study with the renowned Cornish music faculty in a series of weeklong intensive workshops, designed especially for the aspiring young musician. For more information contact: summermusic@cornish.edu or visit: www.cornish.edu/summer
